

The Bernardo Heights and Twin Peaks Middle School Orchestras under the direction of Grammy nominated orchestra director Ulli Reiner will be presented with the 2017 Grammy Education Finalist grant awards at their Spring Concert at the Poway Center for the Performing Arts on Tuesday, May 16th at 7:00pm.

The 6th grade orchestras will perform from 6:00-6:45pm and then the Grammy Foundation including representatives from Journeys and the Ford Motor Company will present Ulli Reiner with her 2017 Grammy Finalist certificate and grant award at 7:00pm. The Advanced 7th and 8th grade orchestras will also be on stage at that time to receive their Grammy Education Grants accompanied by the principals from both school sites.

This is a first time event for a teacher from the PUSD to be a recipient of a Grammy Award in the history of the school district. Ulli Reiner was a semi finalist in 2016 and a top ten finalist for 2017.

For additional information about the concert please check out the Poway Center website or the orchestra website located at both Bernardo Heights and Twin Peaks.

The concert is free and open to the public.
